DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments filed 10/28/2002 have been fully considered.

The 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph rejection of claim 3 is withdrawn.

Applicant's arguments regarding the 35 U.S.C. 102 rejection of claims 1-7 is not persuasive. In response to applicant's argument that the references fail to show certain features of applicant's invention, it is noted that the features upon which applicant relies (i.e., boron containing water of one vessel is kept separate from pure or demineralized water of another vessel, strict separation of fluid in both basins, etc.) are not recited in the rejected claim(s). Although the claims are interpreted in light of the specification, limitations from the specification are not read into the claims. See In re Van Geuns, 988 F.2d 1181, 26 USPQ2d 1057 (Fed. Cir. 1993).

Accordingly, as set forth in the rejection of Paper no. 13 as broadly interpreted the nuclear fuel element transport system of Desmarchais is capable of meeting applicant's claimed inventive concept.

The 35 U.S.C. 102 rejection of claims 1-7 of paper no. 13 is herein incorporated by reference.

Conclusion

2. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
